CANADA.

No. 581.

SIR,—

I have the honour to transmit to Your Royal Highness, for the information of your Ministers, a copy of a notice published in the press on the 15th June, containing information for the guidance of persons desiring to record:—

(a.) Debts (including bank balances) due to British subjects from persons residing in enemy countries:

(b.) Other property in enemy countries (including securities) belonging to British subjects.

2. The Foreign Claims Office referred to in the last paragraph of the notice has been set up at the Foreign Office for the purpose of dealing with all claims for the settlement of which no satisfactory machinery has existed hitherto, and which are foreign in the sense that they are claims by British subjects against a foreign Government or by foreign nationals against His Majesty's Government.

I have, etc.,

A. BONAR LAW.

The Governor-General,

His Royal Highness

The Duke of Connaught and of Strathearn, K.G., etc., etc.

BRITISH PROPERTY IN ENEMY COUNTRIES.

HOW TO RECORD CLAIMS.

WE are officially informed that it has been arranged that the Public Trustee shall keep a record of:—

(a.) Debts (including bank balances) due to British subjects from persons residing in enemy countries:

(b.) Other property in enemy countries (including securities) belonging to British subjects.

Any person desiring to record such claims or property can obtain the necessary form for that purpose (Form G in the first case and Form H in the second) from the Public Trustee. Applications should be made to the Public Trustee (Trading with the Enemy Department), No. 2 Clement's Inn, Strand, W.C.

It must be clearly understood that the action of the Public Trustee will be confined to entering upon the record claims of which particulars are supplied to him, and that in no way commits His Majesty's Government either to responsibility for the correctness of the claim entered or to taking any action on the conclusion of hostilities or otherwise for the recovery of the debts or property in question.

The Public Trustee will record claims against enemy Governments in respect of public securities of those Governments held by the claimants, but other claims against enemy Governments (e.g., in respect of goods or property requisitioned or sequestered) as distinct from claims against enemy subjects should be notified to the Director of the Foreign Claims Office, Foreign Office, S.W.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

AT THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL CHAMBER.

VICTORIA, 7th February, 1917.

PRESENT:

THE HONOURABLE THE ADMINISTRATOR IN COUNCIL.

ON the recommendation of the Honourable the Attorney-General and under the provisions of the "Court Rules of Practice Act" and all other powers thereunto enabling, the Honourable the Administrator of British Columbia, by and with the advice and consent of his Executive Council, doth order as follows:—

1. During the war no probate of a will or letters of administration of the estate of any German, Austro-Hungarian, Turkish, or Bulgarian subject, wherever resident, shall be granted in respect of any assets in this country without the express licence of the Crown acting through the Minister of Finance.

2. In all cases where probate or letters of administration are granted during the war to any person entitled thereto, the grant shall be made upon the condition that no portion of the assets shall be distributed or paid during the war to any beneficiary or creditor who is a German, Austro-Hungarian, Turkish, or Bulgarian subject, wherever resident, or to any one on his behalf, or to or on behalf of any person resident in Germany, Austro-Hungary, Turkey, or Bulgaria, of whatever nationality, without the express licence of the Crown acting through the Minister of Finance; and if any distribution or payment is made contrary to this condition the grant of probate or letters of administration will be forthwith revoked.

3. Any applicant for letters of administration or probate during the war shall furnish evidence to the satisfaction of the Judge to whom application is made that the person in respect to whose estate such probate or letters of administration are applied for was not a German, Austro-Hungarian, Turkish, or Bulgarian subject; or, failing such evidence, shall produce the licence of the Crown that such probate or letters of administration may be granted. Such applicant shall also give such information as the Registrars of the Courts may require in order to ascertain whether any of the assets would in time of peace be distributable or payable to any such subject, and if required shall make a statutory declaration as to the assets and their disposition in the event of probate or letters of administration being granted.

4. In cases deemed by him proper, the Minister of Finance may sanction the payment of moderate sums out of assets to beneficiaries or creditors who are German, Austro-Hungarian, Turkish, or Bulgarian subjects resident in Canada at the commencement of the war and during the war.

And that the Orders in Council herein, Nos. 741 and 1201, be rescinded.

JOHN DUNCAN MACLEAN, fe8 Clerk of the Executive Council.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

VICTORIA, 1st August, 1917.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

ON the recommendation of the Honourable the Attorney-General and under the provisions of 6 Geo. 5, chapter 75, 1916, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, doth order as follows:—

That the trade or business of butcher-shops, meat merchants, and fish-stores shall be exempt under the provisions of the "Weekly Half-holiday Act," to the extent only of permitting such trade or business to be carried on in the City of Victoria.

J. D. MACLEAN,
au9 Clerk, Executive Council.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

VICTORIA, 1st August, 1917.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

ON the recommendation of the Honourable the Attorney-General, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, has been pleased to order that the Order in Council, dated the 23rd day of February, 1917, exempting from the operation of the "Weekly Half-holiday Act" the suppliers of provisions or supplies to boats engaged in fishing, be amended to read as follows:—

"That the trade or business of furnishing provisions and supplies to boats engaged in fishing, or supplying clothing to men engaged in fishing, shall be exempt from the provisions of the said Act as to a weekly half-holiday, to the extent only of permitting such trade or business to be carried on within the City of Prince Rupert: Provided that as to shops which would otherwise be subject to the provisions of the said Act, the exemption hereby made shall not authorize the selling of any goods during the close time, except the furnishing of provisions and supplies to the said boats or clothing to the men engaged in the said fisheries, during the time when such shop, except for the exemption, would be required to be closed under the provisions of the said Act."

Attorney-General. } chapter 35 of the Statutes of Our Province of British Columbia for the year 1915, being the "Moratorium Act," as amended by chapter 34 of the Statutes of Our said Province for the year 1916, and further amended by the "Moratorium Act Amendment Act, 1917,"
His Majesty's Lieutenant-Governor for the said Province in Council has power by Proclamation to confer certain authorities upon the Judges of the Supreme and County Courts in Our said Province and to make certain other declarations in respect of certain instruments affecting land situate within the Province for the purposes hereinafter and in said Act set out:

And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made in pursuance of the said Act, as amended as aforesaid, for all such purposes:

Now, therefore, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Executive Council of Our said Province, to issue this Our Proclamation, and We do hereby proclaim, direct, declare, and ordain as follows:—

1. In this Proclamation—

“Instrument” means and includes any mortgage, charge, encumbrance, agreement of sale or purchase, or other instrument charging land with the payment of money, in respect of or affecting land situate within the Province, and created or made prior to the fourth day of August, 1914; but shall not include liens under the “Mechanics’ Lien Act” or a certificate of judgment.

“Land” includes all real property, and every estate, right, title, and interest in land or real property, both legal and equitable, and of whatsoever nature and kind, and any contingent, executory, or future interest therein, and a possibility coupled with an interest in such land or real property, whether the object of the gift or limitation of such interest or possibility be ascertained or not, and also a right of entry, whether immediate or future, and whether vested or contingent, into and upon any land.

2. This Proclamation shall—

(a.) Authorize any Judge or any Court in the the Province in which any action or proceeding was pending on the fourth day of August, 1914, or has since been or may hereafter be taken to secure or enforce any right, remedy, or obligation under any instrument, or in respect of the lands, moneys, covenants, stipulations, or agreements mentioned or contained therein, by order,—

(i.) To postpone the payment of any moneys relating wholly or in part to principal due or accruing due in pursuance of such instrument, and for such purpose to stay any such action or proceeding and the execution of any process already issued in such action, and any proceeding to enforce payment by sale, writ of execution, or other process of the Court in any such action, until after the lapse of a time named in such order; and in the discretion of such Judge to postpone in like manner and by the like means the payment of any moneys relating to interest or taxes due or accruing due in pursuance of such instrument;

(ii.) In case of any such action or proceeding upon an instrument charging land upon which any person liable for the payment of the money charged by the instrument, or any member of his family, lives, the whole or the major portion of which is occupied by the person living thereon as his bona-fide place of residence, to postpone, in like manner and by the like means set out in subclause (i), the payment of any moneys relating to interest due or accruing due in pursuance of the instrument;

(iii.) To fix the period to be allowed for redemption of land or any mortgage or charge thereon in any such action or proceeding; and in any such action or proceeding in which the time for redemption has been fixed, to extend the same until after the lapse of a time named in such order:

(b.) Authorize any Judge of the Supreme Court of British Columbia to order, in respect of any instrument, that no person shall, under or by virtue of any power of sale or other power contained in the instrument, or by any other extra-judicial process whatsoever, declare or take advantage of any forfeiture of any land or of any money paid or deposited in respect of the purchase of any land, or take or continue any proceedings for the sale of any land, or levy any distress, or take, resume, or enter into possession of any land, until after the lapse of a time named in such order, and then only on such conditions (if any) as the Court may impose; and to order that any goods taken upon any distress levied or any possession of land taken, resumed, or entered into before such order be restored:

(c.) Declare, in respect of all instruments, that no person shall, under or by virtue of any power of sale or other power contained in any instrument, or by any other extra-judicial process whatsoever, declare or take advantage of any forfeiture of any land or of any money paid or deposited in respect of the purchase of any land, or take or continue any proceedings for the sale of any land, until after notice in writing of the intention to declare or take advantage of such forfeiture or to take proceedings under such power or process has first been personally served for a period of one month on the mortgagor, encumbrancer, or vendee, and on all persons shown to have any interest in the lands by the records of the Land Registry Office of the land registration district in which the lands are situate, or if in any case personal service of such notice cannot be effected with the exercise of all due diligence, then by effecting such other service of the same as may be directed by any Judge of the Supreme Court:

(d.) Authorize the Judge of any County Court within whose territorial jurisdiction no Judge of the Supreme Court resides to have and possess for the purpose of the said Act the same authority and powers in respect of actions or proceedings in the Supreme Court, and in respect of forfeitures, sales, and proceedings by virtue of any power of sale or other power contained in any instrument, or by any other extra-judicial process whatsoever, relating to land situate within such territorial jurisdiction, as any Judge of the Supreme Court is by this Proclamation authorized to exercise.

3. This Proclamation is made in pursuance of and subject to the provisions of said “Moratorium Act,” chapter 35 of the Statutes of British Columbia for the year 1915, as amended by said chapter 34 of the Statutes of British Columbia for the year 1916, and by said “Moratorium Act Amendment Act, 1917.”

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of the said Province to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, His Honour FRANK STILLMAN BARNARD, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, this ninth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and in the eighth year of Our Reign.

By Command.

J. D. MACLEAN,
Provincial Secretary.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867,"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or other wise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relates to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicant; such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in each Electoral District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest Electoral Districts in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House, to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 25th, 1910.

THORNTON FELL,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 3458 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Dried Products, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twentieth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase, acquire, and take over from Albert E. Duchesnay, of the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, the goods, chattels, and effects referred to in a certain agreement bearing date the sixteenth day of July, A.D. 1917, made between the Duchesnay Packing Company, Limited, of the one part and the said Albert E. Duchesnay of the other part, and to pay for the same either in cash or fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such shares, and to adopt and carry into effect the terms, covenants, and conditions of the said agreement on the part of the said Albert E. Duchesnay to be observed and performed:

(b.) To carry on the business of fruit and vegetable dealers and canners in all its branches:

(c.) To purchase, produce, grow, or manufacture, raise, preserve, can, cure, dry, evaporate, pack, pickle, extract, import and export, sell, or consign to agents for sale, all kinds of fruits, vegetables, fish, and meats:

(d.) To engage in and carry on the business of wholesale and retail importers and exporters in all its branches of all kinds of articles, products, commodities, and goods, whether raw or manufactured, from or to any country or place which the Company may see fit:

(e.) (b.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, licence, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, coal rights, collieries, oil-wells, oil rights, quarries, and mining rights of every description adjacent to or which may be advantageously mined, worked, and operated in conjunction with the properties mentioned in subclause (a) of this paragraph or any of them; and to work, develop, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(c.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyse, reduce, amalgamate, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead ores or deposits, and other minerals and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any of them, and to carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining company in all or any of its branches:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise such timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, rights to build tramways, skidways, roads, foreshore rights, wharves, docks, piers, booms, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, buildings, machinery, plant, or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(e.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate telegraph and telephone lines, canals, trails, roads, skidways, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, engineering-works, forges, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and to construct, equip, maintain, complete, and operate, by any motive power, tramways within the Province of British Columbia:

(f.) To clear, manage, farm, cultivate, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use, or improve any land which or any interest in which may belong to the Company, and to deal with any farm or other products thereof, and also to lay out into townships the said lands or any parts thereof:

(g.) To buy, own, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in conveyance of passengers and merchandise of all kinds:

(h.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land and water, ship-owners, wharfingers, engineers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, and lightermen and forwarding agents:

(i.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, hotels, boarding-houses, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business:

(j.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, any patents, patent rights, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention or process which may seem capable of being used for or in connection with any of the purposes of this Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(k.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act, 1914," or any statutory modification, re-enactment, or amendment thereof for the time being in force, and the utilization of water for power purposes, either direct or for the production of steam or for any mining purposes, and for the irrigation of land for agricultural or horticultural purposes, and generally, without restricting the generality of the above words, all powers conferred upon companies by the said "Water Act":

(l.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, industrial, irrigation, power, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used, to persons, companies, municipalities, and unincorporated localities:

(m.) To develop the resources of and turn to account any lands and rights over or connected with timber or other lands belonging to or in which the Company is interested:

(n.) To invest, lend, and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner and upon such security as may from time to time be determined:

(o.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(p.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(q.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, bonus, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(r.) To create, issue, make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and all other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(s.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company carrying on business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(t.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(u.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(v.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(w.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(x.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. jy19

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:
PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.
No. 3448 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Draftite, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into twenty-five thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business, including goods, chattels, and effects in connection therewith, lately carried on at the City of New Westminster, in the Province of British Columbia, by John A. Westman, Esq., David D. Wilson, and William C. Curtis, and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the said business in connection therewith, and with a view thereto to enter into and carry into effect an agreement bearing date of 29th January, 1917, and made between J. A. Westman, Esq., David D. Wilson, Esq., and William C. Curtis, Esq., of the one part and Patent Devices, Limited, of the other part, with or without modification:

(b.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any copyrights, patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention, preparation, or formula, and any interest in any of the foregoing; to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, sell, or otherwise dispose of or turn to account any such copyrights, patents, brevets d'inventions, licences, concessions, formulas, preparations and the like, and the information as aforesaid:

(c.) To carry on the business of merchants, contractors, ironfounders, mechanical engineers, brassfounders, metal workers, boilermakers, millwrights, machinists, smiths, woodworkers, builders, painters, electrical engineers, and to buy, sell, manufacture, redeem, convert, alter, let on hire, and deal in machinery, implements, all kinds of vehicles, rolling-stock, tools, hardware, cutlery, chemicals, and all kinds of merchandise and supplies, and to carry on any other business, manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or otherwise calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render more profitable any of the Company's property or rights for the time being:

(e.) To lend money and negotiate loans; to draw, accept, endorse, discount, buy, sell, or deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, coupons, and other negotiable instruments and securities; to issue on commission, subscribe for, take, acquire, and hold, sell, exchange, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, obligations, or securities of any government, authority, or company; to form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds; to acquire, improve, manage, work, deliver, exercise all rights in respect of, lease, make, sell, exchange, dispose of, turn to account, and otherwise deal with property of all kinds, and in particular land, buildings, concessions, business concerns, and undertakings:

(f.) To do all or any of the above things as principals or agents, both wholesale and retail, and either alone or in conjunction with any other person, company, or corporation:

(g.) To invest and deal with moneys of the Company not immediately required, as may from time to time be determined:

(h.) For the purpose of the Company to borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stocks, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon any or all of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such security:

(i.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized, in any territory or province in the Dominion of Canada, or in the United States of America or any state thereof, or in any other province, state, or place:

(k.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

The objects specified in each of the foregoing paragraphs shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer upon the Company any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act."

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire the ships "Roche Point" and "Tofino," registered at the ports of Vancouver and Victoria respectively, in the Province of British Columbia, together with the furniture and other requisite equipment thereof respectively:

(b.) To purchase, charter, hire, take in exchange, build, or otherwise acquire or own ships, boats, vessels, rafts, barges, or craft, and vehicles or conveyances of any kind, and howsoever propelled, with all requisite furniture and equipment, and to work, operate, navigate, run, drive, and use the same or any thereof, including the said "Roche Point" and "Tofino," in the conveyance, transfer, storing, warehousing, and delivery of passengers, merchandise, mail, live stock, goods, chattels, and produce of all descriptions, troops and munitions of war, and in towing, salvaging, freighting, and lightering other ships or vessels, or lumber, goods, chattels or things of any description or kind, between or at such ports or places in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and whether in the open sea or in harbours, inlets, rivers, lakes or canals, or on land, and at or upon such prices or terms and for such fees, charges, or rewards as to the Company may seem expedient:

(c.) To purchase, take in exchange, or on lease or licence, or to stake or pre-empt, discover or locate, or to manufacture, export, import, trade, deal in or otherwise acquire or hold any real or personal property whatsoever, or rights or privileges appertaining thereto, including lumber, timber limits, and timber rights, mines, mineral claims, and mining rights of every description, and also goods, produce, live stock, and other merchandise and chattels of any kind, and also shares or interests (wholly or partly) in ships or vessels, vehicles or conveyances, and also shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations, contracts, and securities of other companies possessed of or interested in any ships or vessels, vehicles, or conveyances, or of any other companies whatsoever, and to sell, lease, sublet, exchange, let out on hire, contract, licence, or charter, or maintain, repair, improve, alter, log, develop, work, operate, or otherwise deal with and dispose of, discount, mortgage, or charge the same or any part, proportion, or interest thereof or therein respectively, as to the Company may seem expedient:

(d.) To purchase, lease, construct, or to aid in or contribute to the construction of, or otherwise acquire, and to maintain, develop, repair, manage, use, operate, and control for the use of the Company, or to sell, let on lease, licence, or hiring, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, any wharves, piers, slips, jetties, docks, warehouses, stores, buildings, tramways, plant, machinery, factories, and other works and facilities capable of being used advantageously in connection, directly or indirectly, with the business of the Company and the objects for which it is established:

(e.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of shipowners, ship repairers, shipbuilders, shipping managers, ship's husbands, engineers, machinery and munitions manufacturers, vehicle builders and owners, carriers by land and water, shipping and forwarding agents, stevedores, warehousemen, wharfingers, factory owners and operators, proprietors of wharves, piers, slips, jetties, and docks, commission and estate and general agents and brokers, lumbermen, mine owners and operators, exporters, importers, and general merchants, dealers and traders, and also any other business or operations which can be conveniently and advantageously carried on in connection with the objects for which the Company is established:

(f.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company in such manner as the Company may think fit, and to secure the same and interest thereon (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by bonds or debentures, or charge, lien, or mortgage on, or deposit of any part of the Company's property or assets of any kind whatsoever, both present and future, including its uncalled capital (if any), and to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, create, execute, and discount, and to borrow, raise, or secure money and interest thereon by or upon promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, bonds, debentures, bills of lading, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and also by any of the means aforesaid to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any liability or obligation which it may undertake:

(g.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, joint adventure, amalgamation, co-operation or otherwise with any person, firm, association, or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business, operations, or transactions which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business, operations, or transactions which are capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or to acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any such person, firm, association, or company, and to pay or give value or consideration for the same, or for any other real or personal property of whatsoever kind purchased or acquired in any way by this Company in wholly or partly paid-up, non-assessable, or other shares of this Company, as well as in money or money's worth:

(h.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the attainment of the Company's objects or any of them, and to apply for and obtain from any such Government or authority any charters, certificates, rights, licences, subsidies, franchises, powers, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may deem desirable or advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, fulfil, and comply with and, if deemed advisable, to dispose of the same or any thereof or any share or interest therein, and to oppose any applications or proceedings in the premises which to the Company may seem calculated to, directly or indirectly, interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(i.) To lend and invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required, and to grant loans and make advances upon such goods, produce, live stock, merchandise, and chattels, and upon such securities, stocks, shares, bonds, debentures, and other real or personal property of all kinds, and in such manner and upon such conditions as may from time to time be determined, and to guarantee the due fulfilment by any person, firm, association, or company of any contract or obligation:

(j.) To effect or obtain insurance in accordance with law on the ships or vessels and all other property of the Company or any thereof, and on any persons or things carried or conveyed by the Company, against loss, damage, fire, accident, risk, or liability of any kind:

(k.) To divide or distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(l.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the incorporation of the Company:

(m.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(n.) To do all or any of the things above set out in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents, trustees or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed as conferring upon the Company any of the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act." jy19

(3.) To carry on business as dealers in grain, fruit, feed, and any and all farm or other products of any kind whatsoever, and also in horses, cattle, live stock of any kind whatsoever, and also in implements and supplies of any kind or nature whatsoever, and generally to carry on a general store or trading business, and to buy and sell any and all commodities, merchandise, goods of any nature whatsoever as may be thought fit, and to carry on trade, business, or calling which may be conveniently carried on in connection with any of the objects hereinbefore set forth:

(4.) To pay out of the assets of the Company all expenses incidental to the incorporation thereof, and by way of commissions for the sale of the Company's stock:

(5.) To purchase, lease, hire, or otherwise acquire any plant, machinery, and other effects whatsoever which the Company may from time to time think proper to be acquired for any of its purposes, and also any business or businesses, buildings, lands, factories, or any other effects necessary or suitable for any of the objects hereinbefore set forth, and to pay for the same in money or partly in money and partly in shares of the Company that are fully or in part paid up:

(6.) To purchase and otherwise acquire and deal in, hold, exchange, sell, lease, rent, mortgage, or otherwise encumber and hypothecate real and personal property of all kinds, and of any tenure or description, and any estate, interest, easements or rights therein, or any part thereof, and in particular lands, buildings, warehouses, wharves, hereditaments, business concerns and undertakings, machinery, plant, mortgages, charges, patents, licences, options, shares, stocks, debentures, securities, policies, book debts, claims, and any interest in real or personal property of any kind whatsoever, and any claims against such property or against any person or company:

(7.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work and operate on the property of the Company or on property controlled by the Company, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though constructed and maintained by any other company, and to buy, sell, manufacture and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, provisions, chattels, and effects:

(8.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property or assets:

(9.) To borrow money on security of the whole or in part of the property and assets belonging to the Company, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(10.) To lend and advance money to such parties and on such terms and security as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments:

(11.) To acquire from the Government, either Provincial, Dominion, or otherwise, any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges as may be found necessary or desirable for the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(12.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein stated articles, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(13.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on, or engage in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares or stock or securities in any company, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, and use, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares or securities:

(14.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations as from time to time may be determined:

(15.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(16.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to do all such other things as are expedient or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(17.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or of Legislature to enable the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for dissolving the Company and reincorporating its members as a new company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for effecting any other modification in the constitution of the Company. jy19

(f.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, or carrying on any business which can be conveniently carried on which this Company is authorized to carry on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(g.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(h.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(i.) To make advances in goods or other supplies to persons or corporations having dealings with the Company for such purposes and upon such terms as the Company shall deem meet:

(j.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, decorating, pulling down, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings:

(k.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaging in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(l.) To borrow money on the security of the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Company to such an amount as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company, and to grant mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(m.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future:

(n.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst the members in specie:

(o.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(q.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(r.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, or carrying on any business which can be conveniently carried on which this Company is authorized to carry on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(s.) To do all or any of the above things set out as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise:

(t.) To pay the expenses of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any promoter or director or any other person or persons for services rendered in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business, and such payment and remuneration may be in cash or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or in any other manner as the Company may determine:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. jy26

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-third day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

To exercise all or any of the powers or privileges specified in paragraphs (a) to (m), inclusive, of subsection (2) of section 131 of the "Companies Act," being chapter 39 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1911," and amendments thereto, as follows:—

(a.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, within the Province, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(b.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyse, reduce, amalgamate, and otherwise treat gold, silver, coal, copper, lead ores or deposits, and other minerals and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any of them:

(c.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining company in all or any of its branches:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise such timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, buildings, machinery, plant, or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(e.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, coke-ovens, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and, with the consent of the shareholders in general meeting, to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operation, though constructed and maintained by any other company or persons outside of the property of the Company; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects required by the Company or its workmen and servants:

(f.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, and use steam and other vessels for the purposes of the Company:

(g.) To take, acquire, and hold as the consideration for ores, metals, or minerals sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other company the objects of which are restricted as herein aforesaid, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction which a Company especially limited under this section is authorized to carry on:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes thereof:

(j.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, but so that the amount so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the amount of the paid-up capital for the time being, and for the purpose of securing such money and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments: Provided, however, that the restriction in this subsection contained as to borrowing without the sanction of a general meeting shall not be deemed to be imperative, and shall in nowise limit, control, or affect any power of borrowing vested in the Board of Directors of the Company or of the Company under the memorandum, articles, or by-laws of the Company:

(k.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(l.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any company: Provided, however, that in case of a sale for shares in a company other than a non-personal liability company, such shares shall be fully paid up:

(m.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects:

(n.) To purchase, acquire, and take over and have assigned to the Company from Henry James Lumsden Ketchen all and singular several certain mineral claims, more particularly known as the Blue Grouse Mineral Claims, situate on Vancouver Island, in the Province of British Columbia, or the interest of the said Henry James Lumsden Ketchen therein; and with that purpose in view to adopt and carry into effect, with or without modification, an agreement which has already been prepared and is expressed to be made between the said Henry James Lumsden Ketchen of the one part and the Company of the other part, and is to be executed immediately or within a reasonable time after the incorporation of the Company, a copy whereof has for the purposes of identification been subscribed by William Charles Moresby, a solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia:

(o.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partially paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property which the Company is authorized to acquire under Part V. of the "Companies Act," and which is purchased by the Company as from time to time may be determined. jy26

To sell or dispose of the undertaking, lands, property, estate, chattels, and effects of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(h.) To purchase, to take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise to acquire and hold any real or personal property or any rights or privileges which this Company may think necessary, advisable, or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(i.) To amalgamate with any other company now or hereafter incorporated having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To borrow or raise or secure payment of money in such manner and form as this Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stocks charged upon all or any of the Company's property, present or future, or both, including uncalled capital:

(k.) To lend and advance the moneys of the Company to any person, company, or corporation if this Company shall consider the loaning of such moneys shall be of advantage to this Company; the moneys so loaned and advanced to be secured in such manner as this Company may from time to time approve:

(l.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(m.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of this Company:

(n.) To distribute any of the property of this Company among the members in specie:

(o.) To procure this Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province or Territory of the Dominion of Canada, or in any Province, country, or place:

(p.) To do all such other acts as the Company may consider are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To carry on in the City of Vancouver and elsewhere in the Province of British Columbia the business of brokers in all its branches whatsoever, and also the business of agents for loan and trust companies, agents for fire, life, accident, plate glass, and marine insurance companies, and agents for any other branch of the insurance business whatsoever:

(2.) To carry on in the City of Vancouver and elsewhere in the Province of British Columbia the business of real-estate and personal-estate agents and brokers, and all branches of the said business whatsoever:

(3.) Without in any way affecting the generality of the foregoing, to act as agents and brokers for any and all persons, firms, corporations, and estates who or which may now have loaned or invested, or which may at any time hereafter loan or invest, money on or in any and all kinds of securities, and to act as agents or attorneys for any persons, firms, corporations, or estates engaged in any branch of financial, industrial, or commercial business:

(4.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall deem fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, and other negotiable instruments:

(5.) To purchase, lease, acquire, or take over the whole or any part of the assets and the goodwill of any other business or businesses of a like or similar nature to the businesses herein set out or any of them, and to assume any liabilities thereon, and to pay for the same either in money or in shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares of the Company, such shares to be partly or fully paid up:

(6.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular lands, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, timber, and timber lands:

(7.) To increase the capital of the Company by the issue of new shares, or to amalgamate with any other corporation now or hereafter incorporated having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, and to reduce the capital by cancellation of shares:

(8.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province or Territory in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(9.) To guarantee the performance of contracts by customers and others having dealings with the Company, and by any other person, firm, or corporation:

(10.) To appoint agents or establish branch offices or agencies through the Dominion of Canada:

(11.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(12.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(13.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(14.) To do all such other acts or things as are incidental, necessary, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally such powers and privileges as may from time to time be conferred on the Company by any authority whatsoever:

(15.) Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act." au2 distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, and operating any and all improvements of every sort whatsoever necessary for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels:

(3.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(4.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(5.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and to do any and all things necessary to generate, distribute, and supply electricity to any person, firm, corporation, or municipality:

(6.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, and mining lands, oil claims, leases, prospects, and lands and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein, and to carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining and oil company in all or any of its branches:

(7.) To acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise lands containing sands, gravel, granite, sandstone, or limestone, or other building substances or materials, and to carry on the business of quarry-owners and wholesale and retail dealers in any and all kinds of building materials:

(8.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business; to carry on the business of hotel and inn keepers:

(9.) To remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts or crafts, or for producing any form of power, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the navigability or floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(10.) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(11.) To construct, build, acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, maintain, improve, manage, operate, work, control, and superintend logging-railways, tramways, skidways, roads, wharves, bridges, docks, piers, booms, reservoirs, flumes, aqueducts, pipes, pipe-lines, and other works, apparatus, and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects herein expressed:

(12.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes, British, Canadian, and foreign, as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(13.) To carry on the business of timber merchants, sawmill-owners, loggers, lumbermen, lumber merchants in any or all their branches; to buy, sell, log, prepare for market, manufacture, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber, saw-logs, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in lumber, timber, shingles, lath, sash, doors, portable houses, boxes, and all articles and materials in the manufacture whereof timber, lumber, or wood is used:

(14.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land or water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, merchandise, and freight of all kinds:

(15.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(16.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, hospitals, stores, shops, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions or allowances, and to make payments toward insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money or make grants of land to or for any charitable or benevolent objects or purposes, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful objects:

(17.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(18.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(19.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(20.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(21.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(22.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation, and in particular any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company:

(23.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares, or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(24.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(25.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(26.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(27.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, State, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated, or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, State, or territory:

(28.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(29.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(30.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(31.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(32.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, so that the objects specified in each paragraph of this section shall, except when otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted or limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(33.) Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or empower the corporation to transact any business or to do anything whereby it may be brought within the scope of the "Trust Companies Act." au2

(e.) To make, build, construct, erect, lay down, and maintain reservoirs, waterworks, aqueducts, cisterns, dams, culverts, main and other pipes and appliances, and to execute and do all other works and things necessary or convenient for obtaining, storing, selling, delivering, measuring, and distributing water for the creation, maintenance, or development of hydraulic, electrical, or other mechanical power, or for any other purpose of this Company:

(f.) To build, construct, carry out, maintain, improve, own, manage, work, control, operate, remove, replace, alter, or enlarge any roads, ways, railways, tramways, bridges, piers, wharves, docks, machinery, appliances, dwellings for workmen, factories, warehouses, buildings, sawmills, crushing-works, and other works and conveniences to, in, along, or upon the mines or lands of the Company, or which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to the objects of the Company; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise take part in such operations: Provided that the Company shall not engage in the construction and working of railways or of telegraph or telephone lines for public purposes:

(g.) To construct, charter, hire, purchase, take in exchange, own, equip, maintain, operate, sell, let out, hire, charter, lease, or otherwise dispose of steamships, barges, sailing or other ships, vessels, craft of any class or description, with all equipment and furniture, and to employ the same with conveyance of persons and property between such ports in any part of the world as may seem expedient; and generally to carry on the business of ship-owners, carriers by water, warehousemen, wharfingers, and forwarding agents, and of engaging, receiving, transporting, and delivering merchandise upon freight or for hire, and to purchase or otherwise acquire any property or merchandise whatsoever for the purpose of freighting such steamships or other ships, vessels, or craft; and to dispose of the said property or merchandise by sale or otherwise:

(h.) To purchase or by other means acquire any freehold, leasehold, or other property or any estate or interest whatever, and any rights, privileges, or easements over or in respect of any property, and any buildings, warehouses, factories, mills, works, wharves, roads, railways, tramways, machinery, engines, rolling-stock, plant, live and dead stock, barges, vessels, or things, and any real or personal property or rights whatsoever which may to the Company seem to be necessary for, or may be conveniently used with, or may seem to the Company likely to enhance the value of any other property of the Company:

(i.) To act as agents or manufacturing agents or brokers for any person, firm, or company, and to undertake and perform sub-contracts, and also to act in any of the businesses of the Company through or by means of agents, brokers, sub-contractors, or others:

(j.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, grants, licences, leases, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention, process, or manufacture which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of this Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(k.) To pay all or any expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion, and incorporation of the Company or any other company in which this Company is or may be interested or concerned, or to contract with any person, firm, or company to pay the same, and to pay commissions to brokers and others for underwriting, placing, selling, or guaranteeing the subscriptions of any shares, bonds, debentures, or securities of this Company or of any other company as aforesaid:

(m.) To buy, sell, mortgage, and otherwise deal in and with property of every sort and description, both real and personal, for the purposes of the Company:

(n.) To secure, take, and accept as security for the repayment of any debts or liabilities due to the Company by any person, firm, or corporation any policies of insurance, chattel mortgages, judgments, negotiable instruments and paper, and other securities and things of every kind and description as to the Company may seem expedient:

(o.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of moneys for the purposes of the Company in such manner, on such terms, and in such amounts as the Company shall from time to time think fit, and in particular by mortgage or pledge of the whole or any part of the assets of the Company, both present and future, or by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's real or personal property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital; and to redeem or to pay off any such mortgages, pledges, or securities, and to make and execute any mortgage or deed of trust of all or any of the property, present or future, of the Company for the purpose of securing or charging thereon such bonds, debentures, and debenture stock or any of them, or to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any obligation or liability it may assume:

(p.) To invest the moneys of the Company upon such securities, other than the shares of the Company, as may be from time to time determined:

(q.) To distribute proportionately to interest among the members of the Company in kind any property or product of the Company, and in particular any shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of other companies belonging or to belong to the Company:

(r.) To apply from time to time any part of the funds, stock, whether common or preferred, bonds, debentures, and other obligations of the Company for any purpose of the Company:

(s.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person, partnership, or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(t.) To take, purchase, or otherwise acquire and to hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(u.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(v.) To sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(w.) To enter into any partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this

Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(x.) To do all or any of the above-mentioned things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(y.) To do all such acts and things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(z.) If thought fit, to obtain an Act of the Legislature dissolving the Company and reincorporating its members as a new company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for effecting any other modification in the Company's constitution.

Nothing herein contained shall authorize the carrying-on of the business of a bank, a loan company, a trust company, or an insurance company.

The clauses herein setting forth the powers of the Company are to be construed independently and no one of them as limiting any of the others.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT.

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To act as agents for fruit-growers and farmers in the District of Cowichan and elsewhere in British Columbia in selling, shipping, marketing, and disposing of fruits and farm produce of all kinds:

(b.) To buy, sell, ship, market, store, grow, produce, manufacture, and traffic in fruits, vegetables, grains, hay, eggs, meats, live stock, poultry and farm, orchard and dairy products of all kinds and general merchandise, and all articles used in packing, shipping, and handling such products, and farm, orchard, and garden implements, nursery stock, fruit-boxes, crates, baskets, fertilizers, and supplies of all kinds required and used in connection with fruit-growing and agriculture:

(c.) To construct, acquire, own, let, hold on lease or otherwise, operate, improve, maintain, equip, alter, and manage warehouses, cold-storage plants, dairies, packing-houses, evaporators, canneries, factories of all kinds for preserving fruit and garden and farm produce, manufactories of any articles required in the business of fruit-growers and farmers, houses, shops, stores, and other buildings and works which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interest, and to carry on the business of warehousemen and cold storage and general warders in all its branches:

(d.) To carry on experimental farming and fruit-growing, and to acquire, own, and operate nurseries:

(e.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, mortgage, lease, list, and sell, real and personal property of all kinds, and to develop, turn to account, improve, and operate the same, and to acquire water rights and develop and turn same to account:

(f.) To do all the foregoing either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(g.) To borrow or raise money for the purpose of the Company or for any other purpose, and for the securing of the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertakings or all or any part of the property of the Company, at present or afterwards acquired, or its uncalled capital:

(h.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and to sue and be sued:

(i.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in other companies having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(j.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(l.) To amalgamate with any other company now or hereafter incorporated having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(m.) To pay for any property that may be acquired by the Company either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in fully paid-up shares:

(n.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, incorporation, registration, and advertising of the Company:

(o.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(p.) To distribute any of the property of this Company amongst its members in specie:

(q.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in procuring any profit or benefit for the Company, and in forming a company, or placing or assisting to place any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in the conduct of its business:

(r.) To make advances in cash, goods, and other supplies to other persons, firms, or corporations, and to take and hold real estate and personal securities for the same:

(s.) To take and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(t.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, or corporation possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(u.) To sell or dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(v.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any part of the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere:

(w.) To do all such other acts as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 3469 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "United Water Power Companies, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of thirty-two thousand dollars, divided into sixty-four shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire, take, divert, and carry away water from any stream, river, lake, or body of water, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, conduit pipes, and to exploit, sell, or otherwise sell or dispose of the same, and to locate and apply for and obtain water rights and water records:

(b.) To acquire water and water-powers and privileges by record, purchase, or otherwise, and to render the same available for use, application, and distribution by means of works, erections, undertakings, and improvements, and to operate and carry on the business of a power company, and to produce, generate, use, and dispose of electricity, compressed air, and any other form of developed power:

(c.) To construct, carry out, maintain, improve, manage, work, control, superintend, exploit, sell, and dispose of roads, ways, tramways, channels, beds, pits, shafts, drifts, levels, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, drains, aqueducts, pipes, wharves, piling, machinery, plant, furnaces, sawmills, shingle-mills, machinery-works, dredging-works, hydraulic works, electric works, fireclay-works, factories, warehouses, smelting-works, stamping-works, machine-shops, reducing-works, docks, stores, dwelling-houses, and other works and conveniences which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid and take part in any such operations:

(d.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, pre-emption, or otherwise, and hold and deal in, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, and mineral rights of every description, petroleum and oil lands, foreshore, river, and ocean beds, sand and gravel deposits, and any claims, leases, prospects, rights, privileges, and interests therein and therewith associated, and any other property, real or personal, conducive to the advantageous use and possession of the lands, mines, quarries, pits, wells, channels, and works of the Company, and to work, turn to account, operate, exercise, develop, exploit, and maintain and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them or in respect thereof:

(e.) To dredge, dig, raise, crush, wash, win, get, quarry, smelt, dress, assay, analyse, reduce, amalgamate, calcine, refine, and otherwise treat and prepare for market or render merchantable sand, gravel, ore, quartz, bullion, specie, metal, minerals, coal, petroleum, oil, and gases of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any of them, and to carry on any dredging or metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects or which may seem capable of being profitably carried on:

(f.) To acquire by purchase, pre-emption, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to hold, exploit, sell, or dispose of, timber lands, timber leases, licences to cut timber, timber claims, and timber:

(g.) To purchase, charter, hire, build, or otherwise acquire steam or other ships or vessels, dredges, scows, and floats, with equipment and furniture, and to employ the same for conveying the products of the operations and works of the Company, and for all or any other purpose in connection with the Company's business or undertaking, and in the conveyance of passengers and merchandise, and to carry on the business of carriers by land and water, ship-owners, warehousemen, wharfingers, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents:

(h.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all and any of the assets, businesses, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business capable of being carried on by and which may seem to the benefit of the Company:

(i.) To buy, sell, take on lease, mortgage, let, manage, and develop all kinds of real and personal property:

(j.) To make and enter into agreements and contracts with any person or persons, company or companies, Government, municipality, municipal body, commission, or corporation as the Company may deem advisable:

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the Company's business in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(l.) To operate or raise money for any purposes of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose of the Company, to draw, make, accept, execute, endorse, discount, issue, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and in particular to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, at present or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital; to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sales, and other instruments, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(m.) To pay as the purchase price or consideration in whole or in part for any property, goods, or chattels by the allotment of shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(n.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or legislative authority or any local, municipal, or other authority that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain thereby or otherwise any rights, privileges, and concessions which may seem desirable, and to carry out, exercise, comply with, use, and dispose of any such arrangement, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(o.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(p.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, and otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, including the granting of powers to work any patents of the Company, upon any terms, and to accept as a consideration therefor, in whole or in part, money, shares, stocks, debentures, securities, work, properties, real and personal, or obligations of any other company or person:

(q.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(r.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the other Provinces of Canada, or in any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place:

(s.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

PROVINCIAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

SANITARY REGULATIONS.

Regulations of the Provincial Board of Health approved by Order of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, dated the 31st day of July, 1917.

WHEREAS it is advisable to provide for the due observance of sanitary laws, and the Provincial Board of Health has recommended the issuing of the following Regulations:

Therefore, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor has, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, been pleased, under and by virtue of the "Health Act," to make the following Rules and Regulations, and to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, as follows:—

1. "Health district" or "district" in these Regulations means any district over which a Local Board of Health has jurisdiction, irrespective of the manner in which such Local Board is by law constituted or appointed. Interpretation of "health district" or "district."

2. The Rules and Regulations hereinafter contained shall be in force in all parts of British Columbia, except as is provided in clause 3 hereof in the case of city municipalities, and it shall be the duty of the Local Board of Health to enforce, and cause to be enforced, the said Rules and Regulations; and every such Board of Health shall have power, whenever and as often as necessary, to call upon any person to assist in the enforcement of the same. Where in force. How enforced.

3. These Rules and Regulations, with the exception of clauses 4 to 8, and 41 to 51, all inclusive, shall not apply to or be in force in city municipalities, unless the Provincial Board of Health passes a resolution bringing the same, or any named clause or clauses thereof, into force in any city, notice of which resolution shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the city. Such resolution may be passed under either of the following circumstances:— Application to city municipalities.

(1.) In case the Council of a city requests the same to be put in force therein by the Board:

(2.) In case, in the opinion of the Provincial Board of Health, the sanitary regulations or health by-laws existing in a city are defective or insufficient.

4. All powers conferred upon Local Board of Health by these or any other regulations of the Provincial Board may be exercised, and the duties imposed by the same be performed, by any officer or agent thereto authorized by the Local Board. Officer authorized to act for Local Board.

5. Every Local Board of Health shall—

(a.) Conform to the instructions of the Provincial Board of Health, and observe and execute all lawful orders and directions of that Board:

(b.) Superintend and see to the execution of, with care and diligence, the regulations of the Provincial Board, or execute or aid in executing the same; also, within their respective jurisdictions, carry out the provisions of any Duties of Local Board.

of the Health Acts of the Province as shall apply to the Local Board; and shall provide all such acts, matters, and things as are necessary for the superintending or aiding in the execution of the regulations of the Provincial Board or the various Health Acts of the Province, or for the execution of the same, as the case may require:

- (c.) Defray the expenses incurred in carrying out such Health Acts or regulations in the manner set forth in sections 7 and 9 or 13, "Health Act":
- (d.) Meet and organize as soon as practicable after election or appointment:
- (e.) Hold regular quarterly meetings, and special meetings whenever considered necessary by its executive officer, also whenever requested by the Provincial Board of Health or the Chairman and Secretary thereof:
- (f.) Make and keep a record of all proceedings at its meetings, and of all transactions, doings, orders, and regulations of such Board:
- (g.) Cause to be made public the provisions of the various Health Acts of the Province and regulations of the Provincial Board of Health:
- (h.) Provide each medical practitioner practising within its district with blank forms, as recommended by the Provincial Board of Health, on which to report to the said Local Board or its medical officer any case of infectious, contagious, or epidemic disease of a character dangerous to the public health, and also with blank forms on which to report death or recovery from any such disease:
- (i.) Give notice within twenty-four hours, by telegraph or registered letter, to the Provincial Board of Health of the first case of such dangerous disease within its district; and shall further furnish, every seven days, or oftener if the Provincial Board of Health so requires, a statement showing the number of new cases developed, the number of those who have died, and the number who have recovered or are still sick:
- (j.) When applied to by the Secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, give to him such information as it may be able to furnish with respect to any matter to which the duties of the Local Board relate:
- (k.) The Secretary of the Local Board shall, before the first day of December in each year, prepare a report containing a detailed statement of the work of the Board during the year, and a report of the sanitary condition of the district, including any reports rendered to the Board by the Medical Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector. A copy of such report shall be transmitted by the Secretary to the Secretary of the Provincial Board of Health. (Vide sec. 5, "Health Act.")

Duties of Medical Health Officer.

6. The following shall be the duties of the Medical Health Officer in respect of the district for which he is appointed:—

- (a.) He shall inform himself, as far as practicable, respecting all influences affecting or threatening to affect, injuriously, the public health within the district:
- (b.) He shall inquire into and ascertain, by such means as are at his disposal, the causes, origin, and distribution of disease within the district, and ascertain to what extent the same have depended on conditions capable of removal or mitigation:

- (c.) He shall, by examination of the district, both systematically at certain periods (at least once a year) and at intervals, as occasion may require, keep himself informed of the conditions injurious to health existing therein, and shall certify, for the guidance of the Local Board, as to any matter in regard to which the Certificate of the Medical Health Officer or a medical practitioner is required as a basis of action or in aid of sanitary measures:
 - (d.) He shall be prepared to assist and advise the Local Board and its officers in matters relating to the public health, and to advise on all questions of sanitation involving action on the part of the Board; and he shall also advise on any point relating to health involved in the framing and subsequent working of by-laws and regulations as the local health authorities have power to make or enforce:
 - (e.) On receiving information of the outbreak of any contagious, infectious, or epidemic disease of a dangerous character within the district, he shall visit without delay the spot where the outbreak has occurred and inquire into the causes and circumstances of such outbreak, and in case he is not satisfied that all due precautions are being taken, he shall advise the persons competent to act as to the measures which may appear to him to be required to prevent the extension of the disease, and, so far as he may be able, assist in the execution of the same:
 - (f.) He shall direct or superintend the work of the Sanitary Inspector, in the way and to the extent that he shall deem necessary; and on receiving information from the Sanitary Inspector that his intervention or aid is required in consequence of the existence of any nuisance injurious to health, or of any overcrowding in a house, or in connection with the inspection of food, drink, or drugs, he shall, as early as practicable, take such steps as he is authorized to take by any Statute, by-law, or regulation, or by resolution of the Local Board, as the circumstances of the case may justify or require:
 - (g.) He shall inquire into any offensive process or trade carried on within the district, and report on the appropriate means for the prevention of any nuisance or injury to health therefrom:
 - (h.) He shall keep a journal, in which he shall enter his visits, inspections, and other proceedings, with notes of his observations and any instructions he may give. The dates shall in every case be carefully noted. He shall produce such journal whenever required by the Local Board. He shall also keep a record of all cases of infectious disease reported to him:
 - (i.) He shall from time to time report, in writing, to the Local Board his proceedings and the measures which may require to be adopted for the improvement or protection of the public health of the district. He shall report in like manner with respect to sickness and mortality within the district, so far as he has been enabled to ascertain the same:
 - (j.) He shall annually prepare a report, in duplicate, for presentation to the Local Board, for the year ending December 1st, which report shall contain—
 - (1.) A general account of the sanitary state of his district and the measures which, in his opinion, should be adopted for its improvement:

(2.) A statement of his inquiries and proceedings, and the matters in regard to which he has given evidence or taken action during the year:

(3.) A statement of the causes, origin, and distribution of diseases in the district, and the extent to which the same have depended upon or been influenced by conditions capable of removal or mitigation:

(4.) A summary of the actions taken to prevent the outbreak or spread of infectious disease, and an account of the hospitals or other means of isolation existing within the district:

(5.) A tabular statement of the sickness and mortality within the district:

Provided that, if the Medical Health Officer ceases to hold office before December 1st, he shall make the like report for so much of the year as shall have expired when he ceases to hold office:

(7.) He shall perform all duties imposed upon him by any Statute, or by any sanitary or health by-law or regulation in force in his district, and, in any case in which it may appear to him necessary or advisable, he shall exercise any authority conferred upon him by any such Statute, by-law, or regulation, and likewise perform such other duties and lawful acts for the preservation of the public health as may in his opinion be necessary, or as may be required by the Board:

(m.) In matters not here specifically provided for, he shall observe and execute any instructions issued by the Provincial Board of Health, and lawful orders and directions of the Local Board.

7. In districts where no Sanitary Inspector is appointed, the Chief Constable of the district shall act as Sanitary Inspector, and all the duties and powers assigned to a Sanitary Inspector may be performed and exercised by him, or by any constable designated by him for that purpose.

Duties of Sanitary Inspector.

8. The following are the duties of the Sanitary Inspector in respect to the district for which he is appointed:—

(a.) He shall perform, either under the special direction of the Local Board or under the directions of the Medical Health Officer, or, in cases where no directions are required, without such directions, all the duties specially imposed upon a Sanitary Inspector by any Statute or by-law or regulation in force in the district, or by the instructions of the Provincial Board of Health, so far as the same apply to his office:

(b.) He shall, by inspection of his district, both systematically at certain periods (at least once a year) and at intervals as occasion may require, keep himself informed in regard to the nuisances existing therein that require abatement; such inspection shall include inspection from time to time of all shipping within his district:

(c.) On receiving notice of the existence of any nuisance within the district, or the breach of any by-laws or regulations made for the suppression of nuisances, he shall, as early as practicable, visit the spot, and inquire into such alleged nuisance or breach of by-laws or regulations:

(d.) He shall report to the Local Board any noxious or offensive businesses, trades, or manufactories established within the district, and the breach or non-observance of any Statute, by-law, or regulation in respect to the same:

- (e.) He shall from time to time, and forthwith upon complaint, visit and inspect the shops and places kept or used for the preparation or sale of butcher's meat, poultry, fish, fruit, vegetables, corn, bread, flour, milk, or other articles to which the provisions of any Statute dealing with the public health or of these or any other regulations or by-laws in force in the district shall in this behalf apply, and examine any animal, carcass, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, fruit, or vegetables, corn, bread, flour, milk, or other articles as aforesaid which may be therein; and in case any such article appear to him to be intended for food for man, and to be unfit for such food, he shall cause the same to be seized and take such other proceedings as may be necessary in order to have the same dealt with according to law: Provided that, in case of doubt arising under this clause, he shall report the matter to the Medical Health Officer with the view of obtaining his advice thereon:
- (f.) He shall, when and as directed by the Local Board or Medical Health Officer, procure and submit samples of food, drink, or drugs suspected to be adulterated, for analysis by any competent analyst (named or appointed by the Local or Provincial Board of Health), and upon receiving a certificate stating that the articles of food, drink, or drugs are adulterated, cause a complaint to be made and take such other proceedings as may be necessary to procure conviction, after which he shall cause all the adulterated articles to be destroyed:
- (g.) He shall give immediate notice to the Medical Health Officer of the occurrence within the district of any contagious, infectious, or epidemic disease, and whenever it appears to him that the intervention of such officer is necessary, in consequence of the existence of any nuisance injurious to health, or of any overcrowding in a house, he shall forthwith inform the Medical Health Officer thereof:
- (h.) He shall attend to the instructions of the Medical Health Officer with respect to any measures, such as the quarantining or disinfecting of a house or any infected person or thing, or any other measures that may be lawfully taken by a Sanitary Officer or Inspector for preventing the spread of any contagious, infectious, or epidemic disease of a dangerous character:
- (i.) He shall enter from day to day, in a book to be provided by the Local Board, particulars of his inspections and of the action taken by him in the execution of his duties. He shall also keep a book or books so arranged as to form, as far as possible, a continuous record of the sanitary condition of each of the premises inspected, or in respect to which any action has been taken, and shall keep any other systematic records required. He shall produce any such book whenever requested by the Local Board or Medical Health Officer, and give any information required that he may be able to furnish with respect to any matter to which the duties of Sanitary Inspector relate. He shall also attend all meetings of the Local Board when so required. He shall from time to time report in writing to the Local Board his proceedings and the matters in regard to which action should be taken by the Board.

Deposits endanger-
forbidden.

9. No person shall suffer the accumulation upon or escape from his premises, or deposit, or permit the deposit, upon any land belonging to him or under his control, of anything so as to endanger the public health, or shall deposit, or suffer or permit to be deposited, in, upon, on, or into any street, square, lane, by-way, wharf, dock, slip, lake, pond, bank, harbour, river, stream, or water, any manure or other refuse, or vegetable or animal matter, or filth of any kind, or any dead animal.

Duty of Sanitary Inspector as to lands, etc.

10. It shall be the duty of the Local Board or Sanitary Inspector to keep a vigilant supervision over all streets, lanes, by-ways, lots, or premises upon which any such accumulation as aforesaid may be found, and at once to notify the parties who own or occupy such lots or premises, or who, either personally or through their employees, have deposited such manure, refuse, matter, dirt, or filth in any street, lane, or by-way, or who permit or suffer the accumulation thereof, to cleanse the same and to remove what is found thereon; and such parties shall forthwith remove the same, and if the same be not removed within twenty-four hours after such notification, the Local Board or Sanitary Inspector may cause the parties so offending to be prosecuted, and may also cause the same to be removed at the expense of the person or persons so offending. The Local Board may inspect, or cause to be inspected by the Sanitary Inspector, at intervals, all premises occupied by persons residing within its jurisdiction.

Examination of buildings or premises by Sanitary Inspectors.

11. Whenever it shall appear to the Local Board or to any of its officials that it is necessary for the preservation of the public health, or for the abatement of anything dangerous to the public health, or whenever they or he shall have received a notice signed by one or more inhabitant householders of the district, stating the condition of any building in the district to be so filthy as to be dangerous to the public health, or that upon any premises in the district there is any foul or offensive ditch, gutter, drain, privy, cesspool, ash-pit, or cellar kept or constructed so as to be dangerous or injurious to the public health, or that upon any such premises an accumulation of dung, manure, offal, filth, refuse, stagnant water, or other matter or thing is kept so as to be dangerous or injurious as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Local Board or Sanitary Inspector to enter such buildings or premises for the purpose of examining the same, and, if necessary, order the removal of such matter or thing as aforesaid. If the occupant or proprietor, or his lawful agent or representative having charge or control of such premises, after having had twenty-four hours' notice from any such officer or Board to remove or abate such matter or thing as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to remove or abate the same, he shall be subject to the penalties imposed for infraction of these Regulations. The Local Board or Sanitary Inspector shall abate or cause to be abated summarily, and by force if necessary, any nuisance likely to be injurious to the public health.

Notice to put premises in proper sanitary condition or to quit same.

12. If the Local Board is satisfied, upon due examination by itself or officer, that a cellar, room, tenement, or building within its jurisdiction, occupied as a dwelling-place, has become, by reason of the number of occupants, want of cleanliness, the existence therein of a contagious or infectious disease, or other cause, unfit for such purpose, or that it has become a nuisance or in any way dangerous to the health of the occupants or of the public, it may issue a notice in writing to such occupants, or any of them, requiring the said premises to be put in proper sanitary condition, or, if it sees fit, requiring the occupants to quit the premises within such time as the Board may deem reasonable. If the person so notified, or any of them, neglect or refuse to comply with the terms of the notice, every person so offending shall be liable to the penalties imposed for infraction of these Regulations, and the Board may cause the premises to be properly cleansed at the expense of the owners or occupants, or may remove the occupants forcibly and close up the premises, and the same shall not again be occupied as a dwelling-place until put into proper sanitary condition; or the Board, if it sees fit, may, subject to the provisions of section 108 of the "Health Act," cause such premises to be destroyed, with the consent of two Justices of the Peace.

13. No person shall offer for sale as food any diseased animal, or any meat, fish, fruit, vegetables, milk, or any other article of food, drink, or drugs which, by reason of disease, adulteration, or impurity, or any other cause, shall be unfit for use. Sale of unwholesome food, etc.

Slaughter-houses.

14. No proprietor or tenant of any shop, house, or outhouse shall, nor shall any butcher or other person, use any such shop, house, or outhouse at any time as a slaughter-house, or for the purpose of slaughtering any animals therein, unless such shop, house, or outhouse be distant not less than two hundred yards from any dwelling-house, and distant not less than seventy yards from any public street. Distance of slaughter-house, etc.

15. All slaughter-houses within the district shall be subject to regular inspection under the direction of the Local Board, and no person shall keep any slaughter-house unless the permission in writing of the Local Board for the keeping of such slaughter-house has been first obtained, and remains unrevoked. Such permission shall be granted, after approval of such premises upon inspection, subject to the condition that the said houses shall be constructed, managed, and kept in accordance with any specifications, requirements, or regulations with regard to slaughter-houses which may be made by the Provincial Board of Health, and upon such condition being broken the said permission may be revoked by the Local Board; and all animals to be slaughtered, and all fresh meat exposed for sale, shall be subject to like inspection. Inspection of slaughter-house.

16. Every slaughter-house or abbatoir, together with the cattle yards and pens attached thereto, shall be of a character and equipment as shall be approved by the Provincial Board of Health, and shall have—

- (a.) Yards and pens with shelter for cattle, and appliances and conveniences for feeding and watering the same:
- (b.) Killing-floor:
- (c.) Refrigerator or store-room with separate hanging-room and ice-chamber, or other such arrangements as shall be acceptable to the Provincial Board of Health:
- (d.) Proper and adequate appliances for killing, cleaning, and hanging animals, for heating water for removal of blood and offal, and for receiving the organs and fat:
- (e.) An adequate supply of pure water for flushing and general cleansing purposes:
- (f.) Sufficient and proper appliances for heating and ventilation:
- (g.) Properly constructed and adequate sewerage, and means for disposal of sewage:
- (h.) Adequate arrangements for disposing of refuse and offal, so as not to create a nuisance.

17. The ground on which the building is situated should be selected for its dryness; and subsoil water, where necessary, must be carried away by a three-inch field-tile laid around the outside of the foundation, and lower than the floor.

18. The floors must be laid in, either with vitrified brick laid in cement, or in concrete with roughened surface, on a foundation of concrete in both cases, or in such a manner that they will be impervious to water, and generally to the satisfaction of the Provincial Board of Health.

Building permit.

19. No building shall be erected or converted into or used as a slaughter-house until the plans thereof have been duly submitted to the Provincial Board of Health and approved in writing by said Board; and no building occupied as a slaughter-house or any part thereof, or any building on the same lot, shall be occupied at any time as a dwelling or lodging place; and every such building shall at all times be kept adequately and thoroughly ventilated.

20. No room or loft shall be constructed over a slaughter-house.

21. All floors where any meat, refuse, offal, fertilizer, or any other materials derived, directly or indirectly, from the slaughtering of animals are treated or handled must be made of water-tight, non-absorbent material and properly drained, and the walls of the killing, meat-dressing, and cooling rooms must be covered to the height of six feet above the floor with some non-absorbent material.

22. The yards, other than where cattle are kept, must be so constructed as not to absorb liquid filth, and be so graded as to permit free drainage.

23. All woodwork, except counters, must be painted or white-washed.

24. Blood from slaughtered animals must, while still fresh, be treated so as not to become offensive. All offensive odours, arising from the handling of meat and treating of and caring for offal, blood, or any other material stored or manufactured must be cared for by destruction or condensation, and not allowed to escape into the outside air.

25. No blood-pit, dung-pit, or privy-well shall remain nor be constructed within any slaughter-house, and no accumulation of any refuse whatever, when tainted or emitting a foul odour, shall be permitted to remain in or around a slaughter-house.

26. The owners, agents, or occupiers of all slaughter-houses shall, during the months of June, July, August, and September, distribute twice in each week not less than twenty-five pounds of chloride of lime about their premises, and also remove the contents of any manure-pit or manure-pile on the premises twice in each week, except where only several head of cattle are slaughtered weekly.

27. Officers of the Local Board of Health of every municipality in which a slaughter-house is established, or from which meat is supplied to inhabitants of said municipality, or officers of the Provincial Board of Health, may employ one or more competent persons to inspect such slaughter-houses, cattle yards and pens, and all animals, carcasses, and meat intended for human food.

28. Whenever any animal is found to be diseased or in a state unfit to be slaughtered for the purpose of selling its meat for human food, said animal shall be condemned, and shall not be slaughtered for said purpose unless by permission of the Local Medical Health Officer or Provincial Board of Health.

29. Free access to every slaughter-house, for the purpose of inspection, must be afforded at all reasonable time to the Medical Officer of Health, Inspector, Surveyor, or Committees appointed by the Local or Provincial Board of Health.

30. When meat or carcasses are condemned as being unfit for human food they are liable to be seized or destroyed, and shall not be offered for sale unless by permission of the Local Medical Health Officer or Provincial Board of Health.

31. The meat of emaciated or wasted animals, or meat found to be diseased or unwholesome, or veal less than three weeks old when killed, or lamb less than eight weeks old when killed, or pig less than five weeks old when killed, shall be considered unfit for human food.

32. Animals, other than those intended for slaughter, must not be kept in or around slaughter-houses.

33. Pig-pens must not be nearer than two hundred yards to any slaughter-house.

34. Animals intended for slaughter must not be kept in or around a slaughter-house for a longer period than forty-eight hours, and must be supplied with water.

35. All milch-cows and all cow-byres, and all dairies or other places in which milk is sold or kept for general use, and all cheese-factories and creameries, shall be subject to regular inspection under the direction of the Local Board; and the proprietors shall be required to obtain permission, in writing, of the Board to keep such dairy or other place where milk is sold or kept as aforesaid, or to keep a cheese-factory or creamery; and the same shall not be kept by any one without such permission, which shall be granted after approval of such premises upon inspection, and upon it being found that such places as aforesaid are constructed, managed, and kept in accordance with any specifications, requirements, and regulations of the Provincial Board of Health with regard thereto, and it further being found that the milk is not likely to contain any matter or thing liable to produce disease, either by reason of adulteration, contamination with sewage, absorption of disease germs, infection of cows, or any other generally recognized cause; and upon such conditions being broken the said permission may be revoked by the Board.

Inspection of cow-byres, cheese-factories, and creameries.

36. The Local Board may inspect any slaughter-house, dairy, vegetable or fruit garden without the district, where meat, milk, butter, fruit, or vegetables intended for sale within the district is slaughtered, collected, made, prepared, or grown; and if it is found that such places or things are in any way dangerous to health, or are not constructed, managed, or kept in accordance with any specifications, requirements, or regulations of the Provincial Board of Health, the Board may prohibit the bringing or sale of any such article of food within its district.

Powers of Local Board regarding slaughter-houses, etc., within its district.

Water-supply.

37. It shall be the duty of the owner of every house within the Province to provide for the occupants of the same a sufficient supply of pure and wholesome drinking-water; and in case the occupant or occupants of any such house or the Sanitary Inspector is or are not satisfied with the wholesomeness or sufficiency of such supply, he or they may apply to the Board to determine as to the same; and if the supply be found sufficient and wholesome, then the expenses incident to such determination shall be paid by the said occupant or occupants so applying, or by the Board when the Sanitary Inspector makes the application, and if the supply be found to be not sufficient and wholesome, then they shall be paid by the owner, and in either case the said charges shall be recoverable in a summary manner before one Justice of the Peace.

Complaints, how made, etc.

38. In case the water-supply as aforesaid is drawn from a well or spring, any person complaining of the quality of the water therein shall make complaint to the Local Board or Sanitary Inspector, in writing, giving full information as to the location of the well or spring complained of, and an approximate estimate of the number of persons or animals using the water from the said well or spring; and upon receipt of the complaint in writing as aforesaid, the Sanitary Inspector shall, as soon as practicable procure a sample of the water from such well or spring in the presence of at least one credible witness, which sample shall be immediately sealed up by said Inspector in an air-tight receptacle, and be given or forwarded by him to an analyst named or appointed by the Provincial or Local Board of Health; and on receipt of the report of the analysis the Local Board shall act in accordance with the report.

Duty of local health authorities.

39. Whenever it can be shown that danger exists or may arise to the health of the inhabitants from the insufficiency or unwholesomeness of the existing supply of water, it shall be the duty of the local health authorities to provide the district over which it has jurisdiction with a supply of wholesome water, if a proper supply can be got at reasonable cost, and such local health authority may make reasonable rules respecting and charges for such water-supply, and such charges may be collected in a summary manner before one Justice of the Peace.

Compulsory use of public supply.

40. When a wholesome public supply of water has been provided, either by the Local Health or a water company, the Board may compel the abandoning the use of any well, spring, or other source of water-supply, and require the owner of any house to connect his house with the water-mains of such public supply whenever the same extend to or pass by his property.

Wells to be cleaned out, etc.

41. All wells which are in use, whether such wells are public or private, shall be cleaned out on or before the 15th days of March and October in each year; and in case the Local Board certifies that any well should be filled up, such well shall be forthwith filled up by the owner of the premises.

Distance of wells from possible source of contamination.

42. Every well hereafter sunk or dug shall be located at least one hundred feet from any probable source of contamination, such as a privy-vault, cesspool, manure-heap, stable, or pigsty, and at least twenty feet from any dwelling-house, and at least four hundred feet from any cemetery or dumping-ground; unless, owing to the physical conformation, contamination of such well be impossible from such cemetery or dumping-ground. Any like source of contamination existing within the aforesaid distances from any well now in use shall be removed where possible, or in default the well shall be abandoned and filled up; but this rule shall not apply to wells situated less than twenty feet from a dwelling-house, unless other good cause than proximity to such dwelling-house can be shown why such well shall be abandoned.

Contaminating wells or public supply forbidden.

43. No person shall bathe, or wash, or cleanse any wool, cloth, leather, skins, or animals, or put or cause to be placed any dead animal, or part of the carcass of any dead animal, or any decayed or filthy animal or vegetable matter, in or near any stream or the tributary of any stream, well, spring, reservoir, pond, or other source from which water or ice is drawn, taken, or used for domestic purposes; or shall cause, permit, or suffer any sewage, washings, or other offensive matter from any sink, privy-closet, cesspool, factory, trade's establishment, slaughter-house, wash-house, tannery, or other place over which he shall have control, to flow or percolate thereinto, or into any drain or pipe communicating therewith; or cause any other thing to be done whereby the water-supply of any city, town, village, community, or household is in anywise tainted or fouled, or rendered unfit for drinking or domestic purposes.

Keeping of Animals.

44. No hog shall be kept, except in pens, and at a distance of at Hogs. least one hundred feet from any highway, house, well or stream. It shall be lawful for the Local Board, Medical Health Officer, or Provincial Sanitary Inspector to limit the number of hogs kept in any pen or enclosure, or to increase the isolation distance to five hundred feet, if found necessary, to prevent the said hog-pen or enclosure becoming a nuisance or menace to the public health. The floors of any hog-pen or stable shall be constructed of material impervious to water, kept free of standing pools, liquids, manure, or refuse; said manure or refuse shall be disposed of in such a way as not to become a nuisance or menace to the public health.

Stables or Garage.

45. No livery or other stable or garage shall be erected within the Stable or garage. confines of any towns or villages unless the Sanitary Inspector is first satisfied that the location and manner of building are such as will prevent the same from becoming a nuisance or a menace to public health and safety.

46. The keeper of every livery or other stable shall not wash or clean his carriages or horses, or cause them to be washed or cleaned, in the streets or public ways, or otherwise encumber or befoul the same, and shall keep his stable and stable-yard clean, and shall not permit more than one wagon-load of manure to accumulate in or near the same at any one time, and shall at all times keep such manure protected from flies.

47. The Local Board may require that the floors of all stables shall be so constructed as to prevent leakage, and that the receptacle or place where manure is deposited shall be so constructed, situated, and kept that contamination of the soil or surface or well water shall be prevented.

48. No animal affected with an infectious or contagious disease Diseased animal. shall be brought or kept within British Columbia.

Sewers and Drains.

49. It shall be the duty of the local health authorities to keep in Duty of local health authorities. repair all sewers and surface drains belonging to them, and to cause to be made such sewers and surface drains as may be necessary for effectually sewerage and draining the district within their jurisdiction; and to cause the sewers and drains belonging to them to be constructed, covered, ventilated, and kept so as not to be a nuisance or injurious to the public health, and also to cause such sewers and drains to be properly cleansed and emptied.

50. Whenever any branch, main, or common sewer shall extend to Compulsory connection of houses. or pass by the premises on which is built any house, the owner thereof shall cause all water-closets, sinks, wash-tubs, baths, etc., in the said house or premises to be properly connected with such sewer in accordance with the by-laws or regulations of the local health authorities or the Provincial Board of Health.

Regulation of house-drainage and plumb-ing.

51. All house-drainage or plumbing of all houses or buildings, both public and private, hereafter constructed or at present in the course of construction, shall be executed in accordance with the specifications or plans fixed or approved by the Local or Provincial Board of Health.

Plans to be filed.

52. Before proceeding to construct or reconstruct any portion of the plumbing or drainage system of any house, the owner, or the contractor, plumber, or person constructing or having charge of the same shall submit, for approval of the Local Board, plans and specifications of the whole plumbing and drainage system of such house, including branches, ventilating-pipes, traps, closets, and fixtures, showing location and sizes, also a particular description of the building and premises; all such plans shall be legibly drawn in ink on tracing-cloth, to a scale of eight feet to the inch, and such plans and specifications shall be approved or rejected by the Board without any unnecessary delay, if possible within seven days. If approved, the plans and specifications shall be filed by the Board; and after a plan has been once approved of no alteration will be allowed except on the written application of the owner.

Permit to be obtained.

53. No person shall construct, or reconstruct, alter, or extend any portion of the house-drainage or plumbing connected therewith of any house or premises, or make connection of such with any branch, main, or common sewer, unless he shall have previously submitted the plans and specifications as aforesaid, and made application and received a permit therefor from the Local Board. Blank forms of application shall be furnished by the Board.

Inspection to be made.

54. The person erecting any building or constructing any house, drainage, or plumbing shall from time to time notify the Local Board when any work is ready for inspection, and all such work shall be left uncovered and convenient for examination until inspected and approved of by the Board, or some person competent to make the inspection appointed by the Board; and no such work shall be proceeded with or finished until such approval in writing has been obtained.

Defective drainage
be condemned.

55. If, upon inspection, the drainage or plumbing of any house erected prior to the making of these Regulations is found to be defective and dangerous to the health of the occupants, the same shall be condemned, and plans shall be filed and new work or alterations shall be executed in accordance with these regulations.

Plans of drainage already constructed.

56. Whenever called upon to do so by the Local Board, the owner of any house erected prior to the making of these Regulations shall forward, to be placed on file, description of the house and drawings and description of the drainage and plumbing of such house.

Dwelling-houses.

57. No person shall let, or occupy, or suffer to be occupied, as a dwelling or lodging, any room which—

Air-space.

(a.) Does not contain at all times at least three hundred and eighty-four cubic feet of air-space for each person occupying the same; or Ventilation.

(b.) Has not a window made to open in the manner approved by the Local Board; or (c.) Has not appurtenant to it the use of a water-closet or earth-closet constructed in accordance with these Regulations.

And every room in which a person passes the night, or is found between midnight and five o'clock in the forenoon, shall be deemed to be occupied as a dwelling or lodging within the meaning of this rule.

58. No house shall be built in or upon any site, the soil of which has been made up of any refuse, unless such shall have been removed from such site and the site disinfected, or unless the said soil shall have been covered with a layer of charcoal, covered by a layer of concrete at least six inches thick, and of such additional thickness as may be requisite under the circumstances to prevent the escape of gases into such proposed house.

Soil of building-sites.

Privy-closets.

59. No privy-closet shall be established or constructed unless the same be a water-closet connected with a public system of sewerage, or, by approval of the Medical Health Officer, drained into a cess-tank made of galvanized iron or brick set in cement, branching from which is a system of subsoil irrigation drains laid between ten to fourteen inches under the surface, and so arranged that the sewage may be discharged either intermittently or alternately through different portions of the system; or unless the privy-closet be an earth-closet of a pattern approved by the Medical Health Officer, consisting of a water-tight receptacle placed above the surface of the ground, and so arranged that it may be emptied or removed through a hinged door or lid. Sufficient dry earth or coal-ashes to absorb all the fluid parts of the deposit must be thrown upon the contents of such earth-closet daily or after each use. The contents of all cess-tanks and earth-closets shall be emptied and ultimately disposed of as prescribed by these Regulations once a month, or oftener, if the Medical Health Officer thinks fit.

Only approved water or earth closets allowed.

60. All privy-closets, privy-pits or vaults, cess-tanks or cesspools now in use, unless constructed in the manner specified in the preceding rule, are hereby declared nuisances, and the same shall be thoroughly emptied, cleansed, and disinfected and filled with clean earth. The contents of such privy-vaults or cesspools shall be disposed of as prescribed by these Regulations.

Other closets and cesspools declared nuisances.

61. The contents of any privy-vault or cesspool shall not be removed unless previously deodorized by mixing with a sufficient quantity of dry earth or coal-ashes to absorb all moisture, and during its transportation the material shall be covered with a layer of fresh earth, except the removal shall have been by some approved "Odorless Excavating Process."

Removal of contents of privy-vaults, etc.

Disposal of Liquid Waste.

62. Every householder shall dispose of all chamber-slops, waste waters from kitchen, sink, laundry, bath, or wash-bowls or other liquid waste, either by draining into a public system of sewerage or by one of the following methods of application to land, subject to the approval of the Medical Health Officer:—

Modes of disposal.

First—Leading into a water-tight cess-tank made of galvanized iron or brick set in cement, branching from which is a system of subsoil irrigation drains laid between ten and fourteen inches below the surface of the soil, and so arranged that the sewage may be discharged intermittently or alternately through different portions of the system:

Subsoil irrigation.

Second—By throwing upon or irrigating or submersing different plots of land in alternation or in an intermittent manner. Where the land is used for this purpose is non-porous or damp, deep absorption drains shall be laid not less than three feet below the surface of the ground, or such other artificial preparation of the land shall be made, and such attention shall be given to removing, spading in, or covering with earth any non-absorbable matters as in the opinion of the Medical Health Officer may be necessary.

Irrigation or intermittent filtration.

M.H.O. may require other manner of disposal.

63. If, on the householders' premises, sufficient or suitable land for the purpose of irrigation is not available, the Medical Health Officer may compel the removal of any one or all of the liquid wastes hereinbefore mentioned, either by carting away daily or by drainage to such place as in his opinion they may be safely deposited, or he may require that the said liquid wastes be passed through an approved filtration tank or bed before being discharged into any drain or stream or on to any land.

Disposal of Garbage and Refuse.

Garbage and remains of food.

64. Every householder and every hotel and restaurant keeper, or other person, shall dispose of all garbage for the disposal of which he is responsible, either by burning, by burying at least three inches and not more than thirty inches below the surface of the ground, or placing it in a proper covered receptacle, the contents of which shall be removed once a week or oftener, if the Medical Health Officer thinks necessary. Remnants of food fit for use of hogs or other animals may, if kept in a separate receptacle, be at once fed to such animals. Other animal or vegetable waste of the kitchen shall, when removed, be disposed of as prescribed by clause 67.

Dry refuse and ashes.

65. Every person shall dispose of all house sweepings, dust, waste paper, rags, and similar dry refuse not liable to putrefaction, either by burning, or placing it in a suitable dust-bin or barrel, to be removed at least once a month. All ashes shall be placed in a separate covered receptacle, where they may be kept dry and be removed at least once a month, unless the same be intended for use in a privy-closet. No garbage or other waste liable to fermentation or putrefaction shall be placed in any receptacle for ashes or in any dust-bin. The contents of the dust-bin and ashes shall be ultimately disposed of as prescribed by these Regulations. Ashes or any of the above-mentioned dry refuse suitable for the purpose may be used for road-making or filling in low-lying places.

Pollution of Streams.

Depositing refuse and discharging unpurified sewage and other liquids forbidden.

66. No solid refuse or waste matter of any kind shall be deposited in any stream so as to obstruct its flow, or put into any stream or lake so as to pollute its waters, and no solid or liquid sewage matter from either public or private sewers shall be discharged into any stream or lake, but if it can be proved that the best means have been adopted to purify the sewage, etc., before it enters the stream or lake, no offence is committed, that is unless the Local Board has notified the offending parties that the means adopted are insufficient; nor shall any poisonous, noxious, or polluting liquid proceeding from any other source be passed into any stream or lake unless the best means have been first adopted to purify the same.

Ultimate Disposal of Waste Materials.

67. The ultimate disposal of the various waste products of the community or household shall, unless otherwise prescribed by these Regulations or the Medical Health Officer, be by one of the following methods:—

Sewage may be discharged into the sea.

(1.) The effluent of any sewer or any system of sewers may be discharged into the sea, in which case the outfall of the sewer shall be at such practicable point as, in the opinion of the Provincial Board of Health or Medical Health Officer, shall least endanger the fouling of any shore, harbour, or inlet:

- (2.) The effluent of any sewer or system of sewerage may be disposed of by intermittent application to land by any plan approved by the Provincial Board of Health or the Medical Health Officer: Sewage farms, etc.
- (3.) Any kind of waste material may be taken to sea and dumped not less than three miles from shore, and at such time and place that it will be carried out by the tide: Dumping into sea.
- (4.) Any kind of waste that can be so destroyed may be burned in an approved garbage destructor or crematory; but no public crematory shall be built less than one hundred and fifty yards from any dwelling-house, and every such crematory shall be so constructed as to consume its own fumes and prevent the escape of any dust, black smoke, or offensive vapours: Crematory.
- (5.) The contents of privy-vaults and cesspools, or cess-tanks, and all waste or dead organic materials which, during the process of disintegration, may give rise to offensive effluvia shall, unless destroyed by burning or utilized by some manufacturing process approved by the Medical Health Officer, or otherwise disposed of as allowed by these Regulations, be mixed with earth and buried in trenches or holes at a depth not greater than thirty inches nor less than three inches: Contents of privy-vaults, etc.
- (6.) Remains of food, slaughter-house offal, or fish-offal may be at once fed to hogs or other animals. Any parts remaining uneaten after twelve hours shall be at once burned or buried: Remains of food.
- (7.) Offal intended for use as a fertilizer shall be at once deposited on the land and ploughed in or mixed with and covered by at least three inches of earth: Offal.
- (8.) The contents of earth-closets, after being further mixed with earth and all stable-manure may be deposited on the surface of any land intended for cultivation, but shall, without undue delay, be spaded in or ploughed under; or the contents of earth-closets may be deposited at a dumping-ground, in which case they shall be further mixed with earth and placed in trenches not deeper than thirty inches, and regularly covered by three inches of earth. Contents of earth-closets.

68. No person shall throw, draw off, or allow to run into or upon any public ground, street, or open drain the contents, or any part thereof, of any vault, water-closet, privy, cesspool, or sink, or any filthy matter of any kind. Befouling of streets etc., forbidden.

Acquiring Land.

69. The Local Board of Health may, subject to the provisions of sections 16 to 21, both inclusive, of the "Health Act," with reference to compensation and otherwise, expropriate and take possession of, enter upon, lease, hold, or use any land or building, whether within or without the limits of the jurisdiction of the Local Board of Health, and not less than one hundred and fifty yards from any inhabited dwelling, or at such greater distance as the Provincial Board of Health may designate, for the purpose of making or establishing a crematory, a sewer, or system of sewerage, a sewage farm, a dumping-ground for garbage, refuse, or excreta, or for the purpose of preventing the contamination of any public water-supply, or for any For crematory, sewage farm, dumping-ground, or other sanitary purposes.

Conditions in

of the purposes mentioned in sections 13 or 102 of the Act: Provided that land used for a dumping-ground for contents of earth-closets or decomposable garbage only, or as a sewage farm, or taken for the purpose of preventing the contamination of a water-supply, may still be used for agricultural purposes by the persons previously in possession, but such land so used shall be under the supervision of the Local Board of Health and Medical Health Officer, and shall be so managed as regards crops raised or animals pastured as may be designated by the Board or Medical Health Officer. The land used for a dumping-ground shall not be less in extent than two acres for every five hundred persons using the same, and an additional acre for every additional five hundred persons. All waste material dumped thereon shall be disposed of as prescribed by these Regulations, and the dumping-ground shall be otherwise so managed as not to be a nuisance. Any land used for the purposes of a crematory shall not be less in extent than one acre, and land used as a sewage farm, or for any of the other purposes mentioned, shall be of such acreage as the Provincial Board of Health or Medical Health Officer may designate after consideration of the circumstances.

Spitting.

Spitting.

70. (1.) No person shall spit or expectorate upon the floor or upon any other part of any public building, tram-car, railway-car, or other public conveyance, or otherwise pollute the same by the deposit of sputum thereon.

(2.) Any person who violates or commits a breach of the preceding subsection within any public building or tram-car may be forthwith removed and ejected therefrom by any constable or police officer, or by the person or persons in charge of such public building or tram-car.

Penal Clause.

Penalty $100, or imprisonment, or both fine and imprisonment.

71. Any person who violates any provision of these Regulations shall be liable, upon summary conviction under "Summary Convictions Act," for every such offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars with or without costs, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months, or to both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the convicting Magistrate or Magistrates.

Repeal.

72. The "Sanitary Regulations, 1896," and the Regulations respecting slaughter-houses, approved June 22nd, 1905, are hereby repealed.

73. These Regulations may be cited as the "Sanitary Regulations, 1917."

Certificate No. 420.

"BRITISH COLUMBIA RAILWAY ACT."
(Chapter 194, R.S.B.C. 1911.)

PACIFIC GREAT EASTERN RAILWAY.

THE Pacific Great Eastern Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Applicant"), having applied under paragraph 13 (b) of the Agreement with the Government of British Columbia, Schedule A to chapter 34 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1912, for the consent of the Minister of Railways in the Government of British Columbia to take possession of, use, or occupy lands belonging to the Province required for the efficient construction, maintenance, and operation of the line of the said railway of the additional widths and premises as shown on the amended plans, in duplicate, submitted with the said application, in addition to the right-of-way granted under paragraph 13 (a) as shown on the said amended plans, all of which is coloured red thereon, namely: From portions of Crown lands lying between Mile 0.3 and Mile 31.12, Horse Lake Summit North, and more particularly being described as being that portion between Mile 2.7 to 4.2, 6.2 to 7.2, 21.1 to 21.8, and 29.6 to 30.5:

I do hereby, in virtue of the authority invested in me under the provisions of section 34 of chapter 194, R.S.B.C. 1911, and upon the recommendation of the Chief Engineer of Railways, B.C., that the said additional widths as shown on the amended plans submitted in duplicate are required for the efficient construction, maintenance, and operation of the line of the said railway, grant the said "Applicant" this certificate, in duplicate, consenting thereto.

This supersedes Certificate No. 377 of date June 16th, 1916, in so far as it refers to Crown lands lying between the mileages as specified above, namely: Miles 2.7 to 4.2, 6.2 to 7.2, 21.1 to 21.8, and 29.6 to 30.5, and shown on plans referred to as Item 3 in aforesaid certificate.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 30th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.
